

LEX DENNIS

Lex Dennis is the Managing Director of Client Services for Strategus. In this capacity, Lex manages key client relationships and ensures customer success.

In his previous role, Lex was the Director of Lifelong Learning for the Drucker Institute, a nonprofit founded to carry on Peter Drucker's legacy. During his time with the institute, Lex was a key figure in developing the lifelong learning platform Bendable, an application designed to democratize community learning opportunities. Lex's work, which included managing major funding and service provider partners like Walmart, Google, and IDEO, had a significant impact on the accessibility of learning.

Lex also served as the Chief Strategy Officer of enFocus, Inc., a burgeoning organization centered on building better communities through talent attraction and civic innovation. At enFocus, Lex was responsible for the design and execution of major strategic initiatives. As the organization's second staff hire, Lex was instrumental in catalyzing 400% revenue growth from 2013 to 2018.

Lex graduated from the University of Notre Dame with bachelor's degrees in political science and Spanish. He is a New Jersey native and loves reading and playing or watching sports.
